

FPWA (formerly the FEDERATION OF PROTESTANT WELFARE AGENCIES)
Development & Communications Position

TITLE: Development Associate

DEPARTMENT: Development & Communications Department

REPORTS TO: Chief Development & Communications Officer (CDCO)

DATE PREPARED: February 2017

FPWA's multifaceted programming creates transformative results for nonprofit staff and the places they serve. We advocate tirelessly on behalf of our membership network of 180 health and human service organizations through establishing poverty-reducing policies and programs that provide sustained results. Our capacity-building work enhances the impact of our member agencies to better provide services while simultaneously delivering immediate assistance to address their clients' urgent needs.

FPWA Development Associate:

The Development & Communications team has a robust strategy to increase the revenue, with double digit growth, and visibility of the organization. The plans call for a talented achiever to join as an integral member of the team and support and manage a full range of development and communication activities that back and enhance the short and long term strategic efforts for the areas covered by the team. This would include assistance with initiating and maintaining key donor and prospect relationships; proposal management; writing a range of materials; fundraising events; and donor and prospect research.

The Development Associate serves as a right hand to the Chief Development & Communications Officer and keeps the Development & Communications team strong, organized and well-positioned by providing administrative and logistical support as well as interacts with the Executive Office team and FPWA Board Members.

This role will call for the ability to navigate a wide range of activities and scenarios and most importantly requires a desire to develop processes that allows for the smooth, effective running of all operational elements of the department and annualized plans. The position balances administrative and operational tasks and therefore requires a tremendous attention to detail, multitasking under pressure in a fast paced environment, yet also an ability to see the larger picture. We are seeking a candidate that has a love of fundraising, wants to build a career in the field and has incredible project management skills.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Development Associate is responsible for providing logistical & administrative support to specific fundraising and fund development initiatives, including special events, grants, and donor development, including management of all fundraising, tracking, and reporting.

The position will work closely with other internal teams to develop grant narrative and financial proposals and reports.
